

LutheranWoman TODAY

Bible Study
2010-2011

The People of God Unity in the Midst of Diversity

by the Rev. Linda Johnson Seyenkulo and
the Rev. Jensen Seyenkulo

September 2010	The People of God: Reading the Bible
October 2010	The People of God: Body of Christ
November 2010	The People of God: Stewardship
December 2010	The People of God: Spiritual Gifts
January 2011	The People of God: Worship
February 2011	The People of God: Race and Culture
March 2011	The People of God: Loving Relationships
April 2011	The People of God: Barriers to Resurrection
May 2011	The People of God: Witnessing and Evangelism

In this study, we will explore topics that can be hard to talk about in order to enrich our life together as a community of faith. The verse that brought us to these topics is Amos 3:3 (KJV): "Can two walk together except they be agreed?"

The Revs. Linda and Jensen Seyenkulo met as seminarians in Minnesota, married, and moved to Jensen's home in Liberia. War drove the couple back to the United States, where they settled in the Chicago area. Now the parents of three teenagers, Linda and Jensen have served the church as parish pastors, educators, and administrators. Linda is currently pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Park Forest, Illinois, and Jensen is Director for Rostered and Authorized Ministries in the ELCA's churchwide Vocation and Education unit.

